

100 story prompts

#	Prompt
1	A fantasy story about a new teacher in a village with a secret in a lighthouse on a fog-bound island who must return something stolen long ago.
2	A dystopian story about an astronaut returning to an empty Earth in a hospital after midnight who must keep a promise that could ruin them.
3	A fantasy story about a thief who only steals books in a desert caravan who discovers their mentor has been lying.
4	A adventure story about a gardener growing a plant that shouldn't exist in a house where every door leads somewhere new who is the only one who remembers yesterday.
5	A adventure story about a musician who has lost their hearing in a desert caravan who must return something stolen long ago.
6	A historical fiction story about a translator for a language no one else speaks in a house where every door leads somewhere new who discovers their mentor has been lying.
7	A historical fiction story about a dragon who is afraid of fire in a small town during a blizzard who is the only one who remembers yesterday.
8	A horror story about an astronaut returning to an empty Earth in a house where every door leads somewhere new who must return something stolen long ago.
9	A comedy story about a grandmother who used to be a spy in a space station orbiting a dying star who must choose between two people they love.
10	A thriller story about a new teacher in a village with a secret in a desert caravan who finds a door that wasn't there yesterday.
11	A dystopian story about a retired detective who can't stop noticing clues in a desert caravan who has 24 hours to find a missing child.
12	A magical realism story about a lighthouse keeper who receives letters from the future in a lighthouse on a fog-bound island who inherits a debt from a stranger.
13	A horror story about a musician who has lost their hearing in a medieval fair who is asked to lead a rebellion they don't believe in.
14	A horror story about a new teacher in a village with a secret in a floating market at dawn who is framed for a crime they didn't commit.
15	A romance story about an astronaut returning to an empty Earth in a medieval fair who must choose between two people they love.
16	A literary fiction story about an astronaut returning to an empty Earth in a medieval fair who wakes up with someone else's memories.
17	A romance story about a grandmother who used to be a spy in a medieval fair who must keep a promise that could ruin them.
18	A science fiction story about a teenage inventor with a broken robot in a train that never stops who inherits a debt from a stranger.
19	A magical realism story about a baker who can taste people's memories in a hospital after midnight who must keep a promise that could ruin them.
20	A comedy story about a ghost who has forgotten how they died in a hospital after midnight who discovers their mentor has been lying.
21	A historical fiction story about a retired detective who can't stop noticing clues in a medieval fair who inherits a debt from a stranger.
22	A literary fiction story about an astronaut returning to an empty Earth in a space station orbiting a dying star who is the only one who remembers yesterday.
23	A ghost story about a ship's cat in a train that never stops who discovers their mentor has been lying.
24	A literary fiction story about a street artist whose paintings come alive in a floating market at dawn who must choose between two people they love.
25	A science fiction story about a teenage inventor with a broken robot in a floating market at dawn who is framed for a crime they didn't commit.
26	A science fiction story about twins separated at birth who meet by accident in a floating market at dawn who must win a competition to save their home.
27	A literary fiction story about a retired detective who can't stop noticing clues in a medieval fair who wakes up with someone else's memories.
28	A western story about a gardener growing a plant that shouldn't exist in a boarding school in the mountains who wakes up with someone else's memories.
29	A fantasy story about a chess prodigy who refuses to play in a house where every door leads somewhere new who discovers their mentor has been lying.
30	A ghost story about a gardener growing a plant that shouldn't exist in a train that never stops who is framed for a crime they didn't commit.
31	A science fiction story about a new teacher in a village with a secret in a small town during a blizzard who has 24 hours to find a missing child.

#	Prompt
32	A magical realism story about a street artist whose paintings come alive in a boarding school in the mountains who finds a door that wasn't there yesterday.
33	A science fiction story about a ship's cat in a hospital after midnight who inherits a debt from a stranger.
34	A thriller story about a baker who can taste people's memories in a sunken city who must return something stolen long ago.
35	A ghost story about an astronaut returning to an empty Earth in a medieval fair who must choose between two people they love.
36	A fantasy story about a dragon who is afraid of fire in a small town during a blizzard who is framed for a crime they didn't commit.
37	A fantasy story about a chess prodigy who refuses to play in a house where every door leads somewhere new who is the only one who remembers yesterday.
38	A science fiction story about a new teacher in a village with a secret in a house where every door leads somewhere new who is asked to lead a rebellion they don't believe in.
39	A fantasy story about a baker who can taste people's memories in a medieval fair who has 24 hours to find a missing child.
40	A science fiction story about a translator for a language no one else speaks in a vineyard during harvest who must win a competition to save their home.
41	A western story about a grandmother who used to be a spy in a vineyard during harvest who must choose between two people they love.
42	An adventure story about a translator for a language no one else speaks in a medieval fair who must win a competition to save their home.
43	A fantasy story about the last guard of an abandoned castle in a lighthouse on a fog-bound island who is the only one who remembers yesterday.
44	A mystery story about a lighthouse keeper who receives letters from the future in a house where every door leads somewhere new who finds a door that wasn't there yesterday.
45	A mystery story about a mapmaker drawing a country that doesn't exist in a research base in Antarctica who finds a door that wasn't there yesterday.
46	An adventure story about a thief who only steals books in an underground library who has 24 hours to find a missing child.
47	A magical realism story about a lighthouse keeper who receives letters from the future in a train that never stops who wakes up with someone else's memories.
48	A fantasy story about twins separated at birth who meet by accident in a city where it is always night who must choose between two people they love.
49	A literary fiction story about a ship's cat in a lighthouse on a fog-bound island who wakes up with someone else's memories.
50	A horror story about a musician who has lost their hearing in a sunken city who has 24 hours to find a missing child.
51	An adventure story about a thief who only steals books in an underground library who finds a door that wasn't there yesterday.
52	A comedy story about twins separated at birth who meet by accident in a floating market at dawn who is asked to lead a rebellion they don't believe in.
53	A fairy tale retelling story about a baker who can taste people's memories in an underground library who discovers their mentor has been lying.
54	A literary fiction story about a chess prodigy who refuses to play in a hospital after midnight who must keep a promise that could ruin them.
55	A dystopian story about a mapmaker drawing a country that doesn't exist in a boarding school in the mountains who must keep a promise that could ruin them.
56	A literary fiction story about a new teacher in a village with a secret in a house where every door leads somewhere new who is the only one who remembers yesterday.
57	A ghost story about a new teacher in a village with a secret in a city where it is always night who has 24 hours to find a missing child.
58	A mystery story about a thief who only steals books in a desert caravan who wakes up with someone else's memories.
59	A thriller story about a ship's cat in a space station orbiting a dying star who must choose between two people they love.
60	A science fiction story about the last guard of an abandoned castle in a hospital after midnight who is asked to lead a rebellion they don't believe in.
61	A historical fiction story about a nurse on the night shift in a small town during a blizzard who has 24 hours to find a missing child.
62	A thriller story about a ghost who has forgotten how they died in a house where every door leads somewhere new who is the only one who remembers yesterday.
63	A horror story about a dragon who is afraid of fire in a train that never stops who must keep a promise that could ruin them.
64	A horror story about a street artist whose paintings come alive in a research base in Antarctica who must choose between two people they love.

#	Prompt
65	A romance story about a teenage inventor with a broken robot in a desert caravan who wakes up with someone else's memories.
66	A comedy story about a musician who has lost their hearing in an underground library who inherits a debt from a stranger.
67	A fairy tale retelling story about an astronaut returning to an empty Earth in a house where every door leads somewhere new who must win a competition to save their home.
68	An adventure story about a ship's cat in a lighthouse on a fog-bound island who must keep a promise that could ruin them.
69	A dystopian story about a lighthouse keeper who receives letters from the future in a vineyard during harvest who wakes up with someone else's memories.
70	A magical realism story about a chess prodigy who refuses to play in a hospital after midnight who is asked to lead a rebellion they don't believe in.
71	A dystopian story about a nurse on the night shift in a traveling circus who must keep a promise that could ruin them.
72	A comedy story about a gardener growing a plant that shouldn't exist in a hospital after midnight who is framed for a crime they didn't commit.
73	A literary fiction story about a gardener growing a plant that shouldn't exist in a city where it is always night who is asked to lead a rebellion they don't believe in.
74	A horror story about a musician who has lost their hearing in a floating market at dawn who must return something stolen long ago.
75	A horror story about a dragon who is afraid of fire in a house where every door leads somewhere new who inherits a debt from a stranger.
76	A ghost story story about a baker who can taste people's memories in a desert caravan who finds a door that wasn't there yesterday.
77	A mystery story about a dragon who is afraid of fire in a traveling circus who wakes up with someone else's memories.
78	A mystery story about a mapmaker drawing a country that doesn't exist in a traveling circus who finds a door that wasn't there yesterday.
79	A fantasy story about a gardener growing a plant that shouldn't exist in a desert caravan who must choose between two people they love.
80	A fantasy story about a lighthouse keeper who receives letters from the future in a small town during a blizzard who has 24 hours to find a missing child.
81	An adventure story about a baker who can taste people's memories in a city where it is always night who must return something stolen long ago.
82	An adventure story about a mapmaker drawing a country that doesn't exist in a city where it is always night who must win a competition to save their home.
83	A fantasy story about a teenage inventor with a broken robot in a desert caravan who must return something stolen long ago.
84	A fantasy story about a retired detective who can't stop noticing clues in a hospital after midnight who must return something stolen long ago.
85	A literary fiction story about a new teacher in a village with a secret in a traveling circus who has 24 hours to find a missing child.
86	A literary fiction story about a chess prodigy who refuses to play in a vineyard during harvest who is asked to lead a rebellion they don't believe in.
87	A historical fiction story about a gardener growing a plant that shouldn't exist in a vineyard during harvest who is the only one who remembers yesterday.
88	A fantasy story about a ship's cat in a house where every door leads somewhere new who must keep a promise that could ruin them.
89	A magical realism story about a gardener growing a plant that shouldn't exist in a space station orbiting a dying star who finds a door that wasn't there yesterday.
90	A magical realism story about an astronaut returning to an empty Earth in a lighthouse on a fog-bound island who is framed for a crime they didn't commit.
91	A thriller story about a ghost who has forgotten how they died in a lighthouse on a fog-bound island who must keep a promise that could ruin them.
92	An adventure story about a new teacher in a village with a secret in a medieval fair who is framed for a crime they didn't commit.
93	A dystopian story about an astronaut returning to an empty Earth in a research base in Antarctica who inherits a debt from a stranger.
94	A fairy tale retelling story about twins separated at birth who meet by accident in a train that never stops who is the only one who remembers yesterday.
95	A literary fiction story about a translator for a language no one else speaks in a sunken city who discovers their mentor has been dying.
96	A magical realism story about the last guard of an abandoned castle in a hospital after midnight who has 24 hours to find a missing child.
97	An adventure story about twins separated at birth who meet by accident in a vineyard during harvest who finds a door that wasn't there yesterday.

#	Prompt
98	A science fiction story about a mapmaker drawing a country that doesn't exist in a research base in Antarctica who is asked to lead a rebellion they don't believe in.
99	A thriller story about a new teacher in a village with a secret in a traveling circus who must keep a promise that could ruin them.
100	A fairy tale retelling story about a translator for a language no one else speaks in a research base in Antarctica who discovers their mentor has been lying.

Notes